

Arkansas H.A.W.Ks (Hard At Work Kids) Mission Statement

The Arkansas Hawks Basketball Club is a non-profit youth sports organization which began in the 1980's by Olympic Gold Medalist Mike Conley Sr. The organization originally competed young boys in amateur athletics in both AAU and BCI basketball. In 2006 the Arkansas Hawks picked up girls age 11 and under and ages 15-18 divisions. We travel to competitions all across this great nation. The organization has trained such athletes as Mike Conley Jr., Jo Johnson, Corliss Williamson, Marcus Monk, Ronnie Brewer and many more scholarship recipients. Today, our mission has been modified to develop the same caliber of athletes in girls basketball.

Our goal is to raise the competitive level of boys and girls basketball in Arkansas and expose our athletes to the best players and men and women's basketball coaches from high schools and colleges throughout the nation. Participation in basketball national tournaments gives our athletes invaluable experience, friendships and scholarship opportunities they might never have dreamed possible.

Our hope is that their experience with the Arkansas Hawks Boys and Girls Basketball Club will continue to open doors for athletes who wish to participate in basketball at the collegiate level and beyond.
